DEATH OF WOMAN AVENGED BY LAW

Three Negroes Are Hanged in Fulton County Tower for Brutal Murder of Mrs.
Seth Irbly.

The brutal murder of Mrs. Seth Irbly, of Wrenn, Ga., was avenged Friday morning when three negroes were dropped to death through the gallows of the county jail. They were Robert Paschal, George Hart and William Hart. The latter two were brothers. Neither of the hanged blacks was older than 17 years. They are the youngest ever executed in Fulton county. The Paschal negro and George Hart went to death protesting innocence. William Hart, the youngest of the trio, reiterated his confession. He executed his death sentence, however. Paschal was hanged first because of signs of breakdown which he had exhibited during the morning.

Seth Irbly, the young husband of the victim, was at the scene of the hanging. He declared that he was confident the three negroes were guilty. He witnessed the execution. The three executions were made singly because of the size of the Tower scaffold.

Dubose, pastor of the First Methodist church, who returned today from a trip to Waycross, where he addressed the South Georgia League conference, makes the following announcement for his Sunday services: At the morning service he will speak on the subject, "The Beatitudes of Doing." At the evening hour his subject will be "The Beatitudes of Atlanta's Crop of Wild Oats."

Should weather conditions prove favorable the evening service will be held upon the church lawn which has been fitted up for that purpose.

STEWART AVENUE WORK WILL GET EARLY START

Commissioner Winn Says Convicts Will Begin There When Gordon St. Is Completed.

Commissioner W. T. Winn, a member of the improvement committee of the county commission, stated Friday in reply to complaints of Stewart avenue property owners, that the county will begin work on that thoroughfare just as soon as Gordon street is completed.

"When the commissioners made up the program for work for the year," explained Commissioner Winn, "Gordon street was placed ahead of Stewart avenue. Our forces are now at work on Gordon street, and will be through within a few days. I know it for a certainty that Stewart avenue will be the next work men will tackle when they leave Gordon street."

At the meeting of the committee last Saturday a number of ladies and gentlemen appeared and urged to start Stewart avenue, and when they were informed that the work would be started after Gordon street is completed, they expressed their dissatisfaction. There has been no unnecessary delay. Councilman Mason has been diligent. The $200,000 appropriation for the material for Stewart avenue has been secured. With fair weather it is expected that Gordon street will be finished next week.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO 122

"IT COSTS"

"Christ, though he was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich."

---II Cor. 8-9

Governor Slaton says:

"It costs the taxpayers money to maintain the convict camps."

He fails to mention the men chained leg to leg—men sleeping chained to one another and to the walls—men spending Sundays and holidays in chains—men beaten and dying beneath the cruelty of convict guards.

Governor Hooper of Tennessee more rightly estimates the cost. He says of Georgia's prisons:

"I cannot trust myself to express my feelings concerning the gross and shocking brutality of such a prison system. I would rather Tennesseeans should travel on foot for a thousand years the rude trails blazed through the wilderness by our forefathers than to ride in luxury upon a system of HIGHWAYS CONSTRUCTED AT SUCH A SACRIFICE OF HUMANITY AND CHRISTIANITY."

"Costs the taxpayers money?"

Yea. These convict camps of our state cost more than money, which our Governor seems to have forgotten.

There are things which cannot be measured in dollars and cents—Disregarding Georgia's liquor law—Women and children slaving for the lack of a living wage paid to the man of the house—

The brothel—

The drunk reeling in his ruined home—

The convict's bleeding back—

EACH ONE OF THESE MAY BRING GOLD TO A CLASS, YET COST SO MUCH IN SUFFERING AND SOUL DESTRUCTION THAT MEN'S HEARTS GROW SICK AND COLD AT THE VERY THOUGHT: AND THEY REVOLT.

You know—

He who prattles of necessary evils—

Or, advocates licensing the sale of liquor—

Or, consents to little children laboring in mills—

Or, glibly defends strike-breakers by talking of man's right to sell his labor—

Or, sneers at the thought of trying to save the fallen—yea, even though the man or woman whom men seek to save has been convicted of crime—

SUCH A MAN, WHEN GREAT QUESTIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS ARE AT STAKE, WILL BEGIN TO JEST, OR DO THAT WHICH IS WORSE, URGE INACTION, OR, ANOTHER COURSE, BECAUSE OF THE COST IN DOLLARS AND CENTS OF DOING RIGHT.

He forgets—

Christ, when He died, put a value upon lives and souls: He was crucified for the lowest of the low: He sought—He seeks to save that which is lost.

Oglethorpe, following Him, founded Georgia with the dream and hope, that men here would be helped and saved, not damned by inhuman treatment in jails. What has been the cost of disregarding his wish that neither liquor, nor slavery, should ever be permitted within her borders?

COST? GEORGIANS ARE UNWILLING LONGER TO PAY THE PRICE IN HUMAN DEGRADATION FOR THE CONVICT SYSTEM WHICH GOVERNOR SLATON VAINLY TRIES TO DEFEND.

They will not always tolerate the cost in crime of our liquor laws being broken by men in office.

Today they are understanding the frightful price paid in despoiling children of childhood to make dividends—The cost of forcing families to live upon less than a living wage.

It costs—

Putting men in office, who will refuse to betray their fellowman, regardless of his place or position in life, will cost you time and thought.

But Georgians are seeing that with the ballot they may serve God. With a vote they may destroy or save life by putting the wrong or right man in office.

The man in public office is but the expression of your will.

You will pay the price.

WHEN NEXT YOU GO TO VOTE, YOU WILL REMEMBER THE MAN IN CHAINS, THE BROKEN LAWS AGAINST THE LIQUOR TRADE, THE BROTHEL, THE CHILD IN THE MILL, AND THE LACK OF A LIVING WAGE: AND YOU WILL THINK, BEFORE YOU VOTE.

Jesus asked:

"What is a man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self?"

It costs.
